

BUK Inducts 40 New Doctors

Forty new Doctors on Monday 20th February, 2012 took the oath of allegiance at the 11th induction ceremony of the medical graduates.

Administering the oath on the graduands, the Registrar, Dental and Medical Council of Nigeria (DMCN), Dr. Abdulmumini Ibrahim, charged them to abide by the document guiding the curriculum of their training and shun anything that would jeopardize their profession. The Registrar commended Bayero University for keeping faith with the standard regulations of the Council, and pledged its commitment to increase BUK's quota system of medical students.

In his opening remarks, the Chief Medical Director of the Aminu Kano Teaching Hospital, Dr. Aminu Zakari, said the oath was a guiding principle of the medical practice throughout, saying it keeps reminding them of the ethical conducts of their noble profession. The CMD further challenged the new Doctors to strive hard to specialize in various fields to be specialists.

The Guest Lecturer, Professor Edmund Nwanna, cautioned the new Doctors not to ever abandon patients under their care and charged them to exemplify the spirit of discipline, hard work, life-long commitment to continuing medical education and sharpening their medical skills all in the service of humanity.

“In caring for patients, you must not claim to have the monopoly of knowledge but abide by the rules and regulations of the practice, as well as obtain your license as a vehicle for practicing this noble profession”, he added.

Welcoming the graduands to the profession, the Chairman of the Nigerian Medical Association (NMA), Kano State Chapter, Dr. D. A. Ibrahim, admonished them to strictly adhere to the ethical guidelines, saying, “you should not allow yourselves to be found culpable for breaching the ethical codes”.

Earlier in his welcome remarks, the Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar

Adamu Rasheed, mni, said it was a great day in the history of Bayero University, as the Faculty of Medicine recorded another milestone by graduating 40 young men and women in medical education.

Professor Rasheed expressed optimism that by the next induction ceremony the faculties of Medicine and Nursing would be transformed into the College of Medical Sciences, as part of the University's programmes expansion.

The Vice Chancellor called on the MDCN and NUC to increase the University's quota of admitting students. He congratulated the graduands for scaling the hurdles and rigorous sojourn to be fully inducted as new Doctors.

At the ceremony, Dr. Rukayya Nasir Isa was presented as the best overall student, having emerged as the best graduating student in Paediatrics, Pharmacology, Internal medicine and Surgery.

7 Students Get PTDF Scholarship

In its bid to enhance the fortune of the Bayero University students, the Petroleum Technology Development Fund (PTDF) on Wednesday 22nd February, 2012 presented scholarship award letters and laptops to seven students from the Department of Electrical Engineering who sat and passed the examination conducted by the PTDF during a courtesy visit to the Vice Chancellor.

The Head of the Team and Assistant General Manager (AGM), Training of the PTDF, Alhaji Aminu Galadima, said the scholarship was open to all students from the Faculties of Science and Technology with a minimum C.G.P.A. of 3.00.

Alhaji Galadima explained that last year the PTDF gave 20 successful students the scholarship across the departments within the Faculties of Science and Technology.

The AGM hinted that out of the students that sat for the examinations only seven were successful and all were from the Department of Electrical Engineering.

The beneficiaries are:

- 1) Abubakar Muslim
- 2) Hamza Mustapha
- 3) Micheal Anteyi
- 4) Yusuf S. Sule
- 5) Timothy Fabeurin
- 6) Anas Ibrahim

In his response, the Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed mni, thanked the PTDF for the assistance given to the University.

Prof. Rasheed expressed the University's readiness to cooperate with the PTDF on the issue of students' scholarship.
