VC Extends Hand of Friendship to AIG Zone 1

Bayero University has extended hand of friendship to Zone 1, Kano of the Nigeria Police, expressing willingness to work with the force in the maintenance of peace and security in all its campuses.

The Vice Chancellor, Professor Muhammad Yahuza Bello, said on Wednesday, 2nd September, 2015 when he led University Management on a courtesy call to the Assistant Inspector General, Alhaji Tambari Yabo Muhammad, that over the years the University enjoyed working relationship with the Nigeria Police.

VC, Prof. Yahuza Bello presents souvenir to AIG Zone I, Alh. Tambari Yabo

Professor Yahuza said, ‘the former Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed has done a lot on security and now he threw the challenge to me, though the team members that worked with him, including me are still very much around’.

The Vice Chancellor said there was a transition in Bayero University recently which gave him the opportunity to emerge as the new Vice Chancellor, pointing out that, ‘I am happy that when I was Deputy Vice Chancellor you led a team of police officers who officially met with me in my office and have a fruitful discussion’.

Professor Yahuza said institutions of higher learning faced big security challenges, but with the support of Nigeria police, Bayero University was doing very well in maintaining security. He thanked the police and other stakeholders who were on the top list of those assisting the University, soliciting for their continuous support to ensure safety of lives and property.

The Vice Chancellor expressed concern about atrocities being committed in the neighbouring quarters of the University, which had been reported recently in the media and appealed to the AIG to take action towards checkmating the evil doers.

The AIG, Alhaji Tambari Yabo, said the visit of the Vice Chancellor with his Management team was an indication of respect Bayero University had with the Nigeria Police, saying that for a long time his office had maintained a cordial relationship with the University.

Alhaji Tambari Yabo promised to give Bayero University the best policing, saying that police would not relent in the efforts to raid places where atrocities were being committed, including Gidan Shisha, which the Newspaper reported.

The AIG said police would do everything to ensure the success of the Vice Chancellor's tenure, adding that his Command would regularly organize to speak to the University Community on security related issues for peace to reign. He commended Bayero University for doing all to ensure that no cases of cultism or serious crimes were reported in the University, urging the new Vice Chancellor to maintain the tempo.

Alhaji Tambari thanked the University for being very helpful to the Command in admitting its officers to study Law and other courses, saying the police as an organization encouraged whoever wanted to be a lawyer or read any course that would improve his capacity.

Those who accompanied the Vice Chancellor to the visit were Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academics, Professor Sagir Abbas, Registrar, Sani Ibrahim Amin, Bursar, Buhari Musa, Chief Librarian, Professor Lukman Diso and Director Public Affairs, Ahmad Shehu.

AKTH Drums Support for New VC, Prof. Bello

Aminu Kano Teaching Hospital AKTH has congratulated Professor Muhammad Yahuza Bello for his appointment as 10th Vice Chancellor of Bayero University, describing it as well deserved.

In a courtesy call on the Vice Chancellor by the top management of AKTH, the Chief Medical Director of the hospital, Professor Aminu Zakari Mohammed, who led the delegation on Wednesday, 2nd September, 2015, said the management came to congratulate him and register their unwavering support to his administration.

Prof. Zakari said the management was particularly impressed with the overwhelming support given to Prof Bello by the University's Congregation, describing the victory as a true reflection of his unquantifiable commitment, exemplary competence and community acceptability as well as academic pedigree.

According to him, the AKTH would continue to partner with the university to ensure that it remained a leading citadel of learning and become top ranking at all levels.

Responding, the Vice Chancellor, Professor Yahuza Bello expressed appreciation to the team and solicited prayers from all and sundry to ensure that his administration achieved success.

The Vice Chancellor told the team that BUK and AKTH had been enjoying a fruitful relationship, describing it as instrumental. He said the Medical and Dental Council of Nigeria (MDCN) that recently visited the University for accreditation was extremely excited with the facilities at AKTH, especially the modern scan machines recently installed.

The Vice Chancellor assured that the University would do everything possible to provide additional facilities for staff and students at AKTH.

Other members of the management at the courtesy call were the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academics, Professor Sagir Abbas, the Registrar, Sani Ibrahim Amin, FNIM and the Director Public Affairs, Malam Ahmad Shehu.

Registrar, BUK Elevated to Fellow, NIM

The Nigerian Institute of Management (Chartered) has elevated some eminent Nigerian Professional Managers, including Registrar of Bayero University, Alhaji Sani Ibrahim Amin, FNIM, to Fellows of the Institute, during its 2015 Nigerian Institute of Management (Chartered), Awards, Fellows and Spouses' Day Luncheon.

The occasion held at Shell Hall, Muson Centre, Onikan-Lagos, on Thursday, 27th August, 2015 is an additional tribute to the Registrar's high skill in management, having been admitted to the circle of few out of over 200,000 members of the Institute conferred with the title.

President and Chairman of Council, NIM, Dr Nelson U. O. Uwaga, in his address at the occasion said the elevation to the unique grade of the Professional Managers is the fruit of the recipients' contribution to the development of the Institute, management profession and the civil society

Dr Uwaga said the tradition of upgrading members to Fellow started in February, 1963, urging the recipients to succumb to higher responsibility and service to the Institute, management profession and the country. He applauded the spouses of members who are equally Fellows of the Institute, saying the idea to incorporate spouses in the event is aimed at giving them a sense of belonging.

Chairman, Standard Chartered Bank of Nigeria, Sir Remi Omotosho said in his paper titled 'The Role of Professional Managers in Driving Real Change in Nigeria', that the international community have a crucial role to play in assisting the ongoing change in Nigeria which is being spearheaded by President Muhammadu Buhari, adding that any country that calls itself a friend of Nigeria will not allow any Nigerian to warehouse his/her ill-gotten wealth in their country.

Sir Remi said all terms of bilateral agreements should be respected and even now, all of those stolen monies lodged in various accounts abroad should be exposed to Nigerian authorities and every assistance given to repatriate such monies to Nigeria, saying those who have relocated from Nigeria should be repatriated on the request of Nigeria for trial and punishment for their crimes.

He condemned in strongest term the role played by some Professional Industry Managers in conniving with looters to corner funds meant to develop Nigeria and Nigerians, recognizing however the skills of Fellows of the Institute, whose vast managerial knowledge and skills can add value to the yearnings of Nigerians for 'Change', the slogan particularly chanted by President Muhammadu Buhari during the last general elections.

Sir Remi urged Nigerians to rally round President Muhammadu Buhari to affect the real change needed to transform Nigeria from decadence to a vibrant and livable nation. The people of Nigeria, he noted are top on the list of change agents, they clamored for change and they voted for it in a large number during the last elections.

He said the cooperation and diligent response of the National Assembly to Executive Bills or Private Bills will greatly help, adding that Members of the Bar need to discharge their responsibilities to their clients but bearing in mind the implications of their strategies and tactics on the overall interest of the nation.

ABU Don Extols Prof. Rasheed's Leadership Quality

Only through quality and good leadership as exemplified by Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed, the immediate past Vice Chancellor of Bayero University, Kano that the much anticipated qualitative growth of educational institutions in Nigeria can be achieved."

Delivering a paper titled “Quality Leadership in Tertiary Institutions” at a reception to celebrate the successful completion of tenure of the immediate past Vice Chancellor of Bayero University, Professor Abubakar Rasheed, organized by his well-wishers in Zaria at the weekend, the presenter, Professor Tanimu Abubakar of the Department of English, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, noted that with the likes of Professor Rasheed saddling position of responsibility, Nigeria would have been a heaven on earth.

According to him, quality leadership inclined to the deployment of entrepreneurial skills and corporate ethos to a process of management through motivation, collaboration, delegation, monitoring and reward which he said were among the styles and approaches adopted by Professor Rasheed while in charge of the affairs of BUK.

In this spirit of the corporate, he further explained, quality leadership is concerned with result and not to rule, therefore, “with a management style of Professor Rasheed that radiates, guides, and cooperate routine administration, this kind of leadership has become increasingly significant because of its dynamism and flexibility as well as its capacity to face challenges and overcome obstacles.”

While extolling the virtues of the celebrant, Professor Tanimu said, “as well-wishers to Professor Rasheed, I want to say, he is the target of our admiration and support because he is a role model. We can, I am sure raise our heads high and beat our chests loudly in public because one of our own occupied a very difficult office in one of the most trying moments of Nigerian history and did not fail us or anybody else for that matter. We are here to as friends, colleagues and associates of Professor Rasheed to say that we are not disappointed because his outstanding performance is an eloquent testimony of what quality leadership can do between 2010 and 2015,” he concluded.

Earlier, in his remarks the chairman of the occasion, who was a one-time Vice Chancellor of Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Professor Suleiman U Abdullahi, said the reception was specifically organized to give a special recognition to successful accomplishment of a task by Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed.

According to him, the qualities in Professor Rasheed were inspirational and something that Nigeria of today requires for it to attain its desired goal of becoming one of the developed nations in the world.

The occasion, which took place at the conference hall of the National Institute of Transport Technology (NIIT) Zaria, was attended by the new Vice Chancellor of BUK, Professor Muhammad Yahuza Bello, the Registrar, Sani Ibrahim Amin and all the principal officers of the university.

In attendance, former Minister of Agriculture Prof. Sheikh Abdallah, Former Minister of Petroleum Recourses, Alhaji Umaru Dembo, VC KASU, Representative of Emir of Zazzau and Representative of Governor of Kaduna State, respectively.

Open University to Host Next Edition of Staff Universities Games

The National Open University of Nigeria (NOUN) has won its bidding to host the next edition of the Nigerian Universities Staff Games Association (NUSSA) next year 2016. The 13th edition was held at the University of Benin last year.

At a meeting with representatives of Nigerian Universities held at the University of Benin late August, the National Open University of Nigeria topped the University of Ilorin, which had earlier signaled its intention to host the next edition.

According to the Director of Sports, Malam Tijjani Salisu Sa'id, who represented the university at the meeting, the NUSSA Council awarded the hosting right to NOUN.

According to him, NOUN pledged to remodel the competition by creating new innovations and other strategies to make the competition more attractive.

The meeting resolved that henceforth any host University would provide the structure and executives of the NUSSA. It also abolished the office of the Coordinator of NUSSA, who was highly commended for serving NUSSA over the period of 10 years.

The 14th edition of NUSSA will take place in Kaduna and the host university, NOUN assured that it had all the necessary facilities to organize the best competition.

NUGA national Treasurer and former Director of Sports, Professor Musa Garba Yakasai, was present at the venue.

KWASU, Maleté in BUK Ahead Next Sports Exchange Fixtures BUK Floats New Cooperative Society ... VC Inaugurates Interim Executives

A delegation of Kwara State University, Maleté is currently in BUK to discuss modalities and fixture for the next Sports Exchange Programme, which is scheduled to hold in BUK.

The KWASU team, led by Professor Mohammed Baba Gambari, paid a courtesy call on the Vice Chancellor on Thursday and told him that in-coming sports exchange would be an avenue to congratulate the new Vice Chancellor, Professor Yahuza Bello and say a farewell to the immediate past Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Rasheed, who initiated the memorandum of understanding between the two universities.

Prof Gambari said BUK made him what he was today, as Provost of a College and Director of Sports in KWASU, saying that he would always be proud with Bayero University. He prayed to Allah to guide and protect Prof Yahuza Bello in his drive to achieve a fruitful tenure.

The Vice Chancellor, Prof Bello, while welcoming the delegation, assured that the Sports Exchange Programme would be upgraded in the near future to accommodate many games and expressed the University's commitment to give it all the necessary support.

The Vice Chancellor noted that the two Universities also made tremendous progress in academic activities as part of the collaboration they signed, explaining that the management had just approved that the proceedings of the last Conference on Literature in Northern Nigeria jointly organized by the two universities, which was held in BUK this year, be published.

He said he would find time in future to visit KWASU to witness the sporting events.

Vice Chancellor of Bayero University, Professor Muhammad Yahuza Bello, has inaugurated the interim management committee of the new BUK Cooperative Society with a charge on them to put all the necessary machinery in motion for the full take off of the association.

The Vice-Chancellor, who inaugurated the Society on Wednesday 2nd September, 2015 said the university staff needed such an important association to cater for their welfare. He said the formation of the cooperative society became necessary considering the fact that staff needed a body like the cooperative society where their welfare would be attended to with the urgency it deserved.

Professor Yahuza said, even though the initiative of forming the cooperative started during the tenure of the immediate past Vice-Chancellor, in line with his pledge to continue with the programme of his predecessor and particularly to prioritize staff welfare, he decided to re-echo the idea of the society by ensuring its full establishment.

The Vice-Chancellor stated that as part of concerted efforts to see to the full take off of the society, he approved the immediate release of 40 million naira as a soft loan for the take-off of the society to enable them to start buying commodities for re-sale to members of staff who would pay installment ally from their monthly salaries.

He said because of the new salary payment method introduced by the Federal Government where deductions were only feasible for remittance to only registered associations, the University, in order to satisfy the condition, had registered the Cooperative Society with the Kano State Cooperative Society. This, according to him, would make it possible for the deduction from staff salary at source for payment to the society.

He urged the interim executives of the cooperative to, as a matter of urgency, start thinking of ways in which they would assist members during the fast approaching Eid-el Kabir (Sallah) by way of buying rams for distribution to interested staff on loan or cows to be given to staff in group of 5 or 10, as the case may be.

The Vice Chancellor said for now the cooperative would not give cash loans because the 40 million Naira released to them would not be enough for that purpose. He urged them to work hard to ensure the success of the programme.

In his remark, the interim chairman of the cooperative, Dr. Ibrahim Barde urged the management to provide them with office accommodation and three supportive staff. He promised to work collectively with other members of the interim committee to justify the confidence reposed on them.
