President of the Senior Staff Association of Nigerian Universities (SSANU), Comrade Mohammed Haruna Ibrahim, has expressed delight at the existing cordial relationship between the management and unions of Bayero University, Kano. He said this cordiality was the envy of many universities.

Comrade Ibrahim was speaking on Saturday, 4th March, 2023 when he visited the University to lead a handing over of official vehicle to the newly elected Vice President of Northwest, Comrade Aliyu Adamu and interact with the members of Northwest Zone, who had a meeting in BUK.

The SSANU President charged other institutions to emulate BUK in which the Management and unions live in harmony with one another for the overall growth and development of the institution.

The President noted that leadership of SSANU was aware of the university management's concern and plight for staff unions, saying that successive Vice Chancellors have kept the momentum. He said the current Vice Chancellor, Professor Sagir Adamu Abbas deserved praise and commendation for embracing members of SSANU as vital cog in the decision making.

On the handing over of the vehicle to the new Vice President, Northwest of SSANU, the President urged him to emulate the good virtues and tolerance of the late Abdulmalik Yunusa, whom was cherished by his peers, place of work and the general public.

The President prayed to Allah to grant mercy to the soul of the late VP, saying that he lived a fulfilled life.

Earlier, the Chairman of SSANU, BUK Chapter, Comrade Mustapha Aminu, welcomed the National President to BUK. He said the university was honoured to have him especially at the time when the union had just relocated to its new secretariat at Old Campus. He said the union was privileged to have him as the first official visitor.

The meeting had in attendance; Zonal Administrative Committee (ZAC) members, Northwest of SSANU, Chairman and Secretary of SSANU branch of Kano University of Science and Technology, Secretary, Treasurer and Vice Chairman of SSANU BUK branch.
